

Commission agreement for acquiring new members in PayComm e. V.

1. To obtain a new PayComm e. V. Membership, the advertiser receives a commission if the following conditions are met:
 - The advertiser is at the time of submitting the application for membership
 - himself/herself a member of PayComm e. V. in uncanceled condition or
 - employee of a member company of PayComm e. V. in uncanceled condition or
 - active service provider or employee of an active service provider of PayComm e. V. or
 - PayComm employee who has not been terminated e. V. or
 - active member of PayComm e. V.'s advisory board.
 - When submitting the application for membership the advertiser
 - is not the new member himself and
 - does not work for the new member and
 - does not represent the new member.
 - The advertiser submits the new member's fully completed and signed application for PayComm e. V. membership together with this completed and signed commission agreement to the PayComm board or the PayComm head office.
 - The board approves the membership of the new member.
 - The new member has paid the admission fee in accordance with the applicable "Contribution and fee regulations" or the admission fee set by the board for the new member in full after the invoice has been issued.
 - The new member has paid the first invoiced membership fee greater than € 0 in full in accordance with the applicable "Contribution and fee regulations".
2. The amount of the commission corresponds to a maximum of 50% of the admission fee paid by the new member.
3. Once the conditions stated under 1. are met, the first half of the commission amounting to 25% of the admission fee collected is due to the advertiser.
4. The second half of the commission of 25% of the membership fee collected to the advertiser is due on October 31st of the year for which the new member has paid his second invoiced membership fee greater than € 0 in full, as long the new member has not terminated his membership in PayComm e. V. for the following year.
5. PayComm e. V. creates credit notes to the advertiser for commission payments due and transfers the stated amount to the specified bank account.
6. The advertiser is responsible for checking, observing, and following possible compliance requirements of his/her company, tax requirements, legal regulations or similar. Therefore, a commission payment may not be accepted by the advertiser even if a new member is successfully recruited. The advertiser is liable for all possible consequences resulting from non-compliance behavior.

I have read, understood, and agreed to the above terms and conditions. My billing address for possible commission credits for advertising the new member
